

Back to your Heart

I'm walking through the streets on dark lonely nights
Chasing after memories of the loving kind
Most of them feel soft and warm and some of them feel blue
In every single moment I see you

Stronger than a dream that haunts you night and day
I fancy you'd be there and you would show me my way
Wherever my way goes, it should lead me back to you
Cause since you're gone my days and nights are blue

Chorus

Back to you
Back to your heart baby
Bring me back
Back to your heart baby

Give our love a new start
Just bring me back, back to your heart
My heart cannot beat apart
So lead it back, back to your heart

Baby I would die just to get things right
How can I tell you what I really feel inside?
I know I've been a fool - too selfish and too blind
But since you're gone, I swear it's only you on my mind

Baby I would die to be with you tonight
To touch your body, kiss your lips and hold you tight

Chorus

See me standing in the rain
Hear me crying out my pain
Feel me shivering with shame
Let me back – I'm dying without you

Now that I'm the one to blame
You can let me lose this game
Or give me one more chance again
Let me back to you

Chorus to fade
