

unreal

Can't believe my mind
It's like illusion
In every way I feel
Your love is so unreal

You throw my life
Into confusion
In every way I feel
Your love is so unreal

To be with you just feels like
Flying high with the stars
But suddenly you fade away
And we're drifting apart

Don't know how and don't know why I
See this universe in your eyes
Cause looking in the mirror there is Nothing but a lonely life

It's all so strange and so mysterious
It's like I'm caught in silent dreams
Your love is so unreal
Your love is so unreal

Your love is so unreal
Your love is so unreal

Don't want to dream
And only fantasize
Some day I'll find the clue
To make it all come true

Join in my life
You have to realize
Whatever you will do
Still all I need is you

Breaking through to you seems so
Useless and in vain
Sometimes I even feel deserted
In the pouring rain

You're so untamed, you're so fierce
You turn confidence into tears
Why can't you understand my sorrow
Why can't you sense my fears

Don't know how and don't know why
I have a crush on you though I feel
Your love is so unreal
Your love is so unreal...
